The movie, which was released on 28 September 2015, features a plot similar to that of Krrish, the 2009 Bollywood superhero film starring Shah Rukh Khan, with the two main characters being replaced by another pair. In the film, Warsi plays an inebriated shopkeeper called Datta, while Bhagnani plays a drunkard police inspector, with Datta and his other friend (played by

Kareena Kapoor Khan) the real heroes of the film. It is directed by Gaurav Gera and produced by Boney Kapoor and Ronnie Screwvala. The film was shot in the city of Pune and the village of Sawai Madhopur and also in the suburbs of Mumbai, in locations including Bandra, Borivali, Raigad, Ulwe, Mulund and Andheri. The soundtrack was composed by Pritam, T-Series Music, with lyrics written by Sameer, Himesh Reshammiya and Irshad Kamil. 2 K is the only Indian film to not have been nominated for any of the main awards ceremonies in 2015, although it was nominated for a Golden Globes Award in the same year. Plot Datta is a shopkeeper who has a deep hatred of police. He grows a beard because he hates cops so much. He cannot stand anyone who tries to take advantage of drunk people or uses excessive force. He and his friend Shankar are on their way home after a business trip. The movie begins when a boat of which Datta and Shankar are passengers is hijacked by three men who shoot Datta in the leg. The two friends, while being driven to their relative's place, witness them being dragged out of the car by the gang and thrown into the nearby water. Datta, who has been bleeding and in a state of shock, manages to save his life by hiding in a box of animals. With the help of the driver, he manages to escape. He is taken to his relative's place by Shankar, who drives the car in which they were abducted. Once at the place, Shankar is forced to hand over the car to the kidnappers. He is then made to wait for a ransom of 5 crore rupees. Datta manages to escape, while waiting for an opportunity to retrieve the car. He meets a man named Lucky, who has a cricket bat hidden in his bag. Datta manages to take it by breaking his watch. The police are alerted of this by the 82157476af
